

HJR 84 -- CONTINUING COMMITTEES

SPONSOR: Jobe

Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment would prohibit the name or image of any candidate for public office from appearing on any advertisement or printed material paid for by a continuing committee, including a political action committee. A continuing committee that violates this must issue a retraction that is as similar as practicable to the violating material in cost, size, scope, medium, time, and place.