Removing the conflict of interest requirement for members of the Administrative Law Judge Review Committee is a shameless attempt to green-light even deeper corruption and abuse of power within our legal and legislative systems. In the same document you attempt to remove requirements of basic competency of employment law and remove safeguards against partiality of the people meant to assess if judges are performing their duties. Surely the thousands of dollars in campaign contributions Representative Veit has received from insurance PACs, and legal firms has no bearing at all on his desire to free the committee responsible for the review of Administrative Law Judges from requirements to be educated and unbiased.

The Active & Retired Missouri State Employees (ARMSE) is a voluntary, politically unbiased organization of State employees and retirees that advocates on behalf of its members for better pay, benefits, workplace protections and retirement matters. Our concern centers around section 5-1, which does not provide enough clarity for the complaint process if an individual is merely accused of committing a crime and could result in politically motivated complaints against ALJ's.
