I'm Emily, and I support HB 176. This will help Missourians conveniently complete critical estate planning with the aid of modern technologies. In an era where businesses issue electronic contracts every day, it makes sense that individuals should be able to execute electronic estate planning documents with every bit of the same legitimacy. Thank you.

AARP believes Missouri should work to simplify estate planning. This includes allowing the use of electronic wills or trusts to govern the distribution of property. Making the process simple, while still protecting Missourians can ensure that people's wishes are clear and can be implemented promptly.
