I am opposed to this Bill. These Training and Subject Topics are already covered by our Missouri School Districts. This is common-sense School Training. This Training is duplicative in nature.

Trainings ARE essential. Putting every topic listed in this bill is setting school districts up for litigation as there is no statewide quality control on the quality and components of the trainings. Additionally, 1) not every employee needs training on every issue listed; 2) some listed SHOULD be annual for every employee (intruder) and need quality control; SOME ITEMS LISTED ARE UNDER THE UMBRELLA OF INCLUSION (within federal law) - can't have it both ways; SOME OF THE ITEMS INSURE NO BIAS OR PREJUDICE IN DISCIPLINARY SITUATIONS which requires understanding the DIVERSITY OF ENROLLMENT (consider Missouri's response to Brown v. Board of Education).
