This bill will add a great deal of clarity and improve protections for persons subjected to abuse through intimate depiction. The additional clarity regarding consent is much needed.

Thank you for allowing me to submit this testimony online - I would have been there for the hearing but the roads in my area are still not safe after the snowstorm we just had. This bill should be a no-brainer. That anyone would want to create such images shows a grave depravity to begin with. To do so without the subject's permission is not only depraved, it is also deceitful. Deceit and depravity have no place in a decent society. So someone may claim – as a defense to their depravity they we all have the right of free speech and artistic expression. That defense is only plausible when the subject gives permission or consent to their image being used in such a manner. Such freedoms do not allow us to exploit others contrary to their permission or consent, and it is a gross violation of their character and integrity, portraying something that is immensely more harmful to the subject than it could ever be of benefit to the perpetrator. Please vote “do pass” on HB362.
