I am definitely in favor of those who are incarcerated having the right to vote. I am also in favor of having oversight of jails and prisons. I think locking human beings up like animals is never rehabilitary, and I also think its very easy for someone to abuse a human who is incarcerated.

For a society to be fair and just, every citizen should be entitled to vote. After someone has served time in prison, it is best for them and for society at large to do everything possible to be restore the formerly incarcerated to full citizenship with a stake in their communities. If we truly have a “department of corrections” (and not merely a system of punishment and revenge) then it is our duty to restore voting rights to citizens on parole or probation.

HB847I support restoration of voting rights for individuals who have served their time in jail and are currently on probation and parole. I have helped to register voters and people are very confused about this issue. Even when they are no longer on probation or parole, they are afraid to fill out a voter registration application. This measure would end the confusion and allow them to become invested in community life by voting.Carol Schrieber

I support these following House Bills, HB 790, HB 874, HB 603, HB 774, HB 729. These bills are to improve and make the Department of Corrections take responsibility of their actions. These bills will also give the inmates the right to vote after they get out of prison.

Dear Members of the Missouri Legislature, I am writing to express my strong support for HB 847. This bill represents an important step forward in ensuring that all eligible Missourians have the right to participate in the democratic process. Currently, individuals on probation or parole who were not convicted of a felony or misdemeanor connected with the right of suffrage are still unable to vote. HB 847 addresses this issue by restoring voting rights to these individuals, which aligns with the principles of fairness and inclusion. Restoring voting rights for those who have served their time and are reintegrating into society supports successful rehabilitation and fosters civic engagement. It is an important acknowledgment of their commitment to rebuilding their lives. Supporting HB 847 is a commitment to protecting voting rights and ensuring that our democracy reflects the voices of all Missourians. I urge you to vote in favor of this bill and stand up for justice and equity. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Nationwide, nearly 5 million people cannot vote because of a conviction in their past -- and more than 3/4 of them are NOT incarcerated, but living and working in their communities, paying taxes, but not having a say in their government. One in 19 African Americans of voting age is disenfranchised due to a felony - a rate 3.5 times that of non-African Americans. This is not right. Missouri has the chance to improve these numbers and strengthen our democracy by passing this bill. I fully support.

Members of the House Corrections and Public Institutions Committee: My name is Dany Lacio, and I am writing today to express my strong support for HB 847, HB 790, and HB 617, which would restore voting rights to Missourians with felony convictions who have completed their time. These bills are not just about policy—they are about dignity, democracy, and justice. Tens of thousands of Missourians who have already served their sentences are still being punished by being denied the right to vote. These are our neighbors, our co-workers, our friends. They are contributing members of society who pay taxes, raise families, and give back to their communities—yet they are silenced at the ballot box. Denying these individuals a voice in our democracy only continues cycles of disenfranchisement and systemic inequity. It sends the message that redemption is not possible, that a person is forever marked by their past, no matter how they've rebuilt their lives. This is not the Missouri I believe in. Restoring voting rights affirms that every person deserves a second chance—and a say in the future of their state. Voting is a cornerstone of citizenship and community engagement. It's time to recognize the humanity and value of every Missourian who has paid their debt to society. I urge you to vote YES on HB 847, HB 790, and HB 617. It's time to restore the vote in Missouri and uphold the ideals of fairness, accountability, and democracy. Thank you for your time and consideration.

RE: Testimony in Support of HB 847, HB 790, HB 617 Dear members of the House Corrections and Public Institutions Committee: The Missouri Voter Protection Coalition (MOVPC) submits this testimony in support of HB 847, HB 790 (and HB 617), which would restore voting rights to Missourians on probation or parole for prior felony convictions. This is a much needed reform with proven impacts on reducing recidivism and promoting positive reentry and citizenship. The majority of states allow those on probation or parole to vote. Currently, Missourians are not eligible to vote during any period of incarceration, as well as during any period of probation or parole for a felony conviction. This would restore voting rights upon completion of their term of incarceration for a felony (except for crimes associated with right of suffrage). Nationwide, 4.6 million people - one in 50 Americans of voting age - are disenfranchised due to a felony conviction in their past. And more than 75% of people who can't vote due to a criminal record are not incarcerated, but living in our communities, having completed their sentences, or while being on probation or parole. These people are working and paying taxes, yet they have no voice in their government. In Missouri, there are approximately 60,000 individuals on probation and parole. Voters of color are significantly disproportionately impacted. One in 19 African Americans of voting age is disenfranchised due to a felony - a rate 3.5 times that of non-African Americans. Among the adult African American population, 5.3 percent is disenfranchised compared to 1.5 percent of the adult non-African American population. Studies unilaterally confirm that voting while on probation and parole reduces recidivism. States that allow voting by those on probation and parole have lower recidivism rates, and more positive re-entry experiences. Why? Voting encourages engagement and participation. It gives people a stake in their communities. This is one reason many states are moving towards restoring voting rights for those on probation and parole. Since 1997, 26 states and the District of Columbia have guaranteed voting rights to people living with felony convictions in their past. As a result, over 2 million Americans have regained their fundamental right to vote, and are contributing members of their communities. Since 2020, more than 8 states have changed their laws to provide for voting rights after incarceration. Missouri should join this list by allowing people to vote once they have completed their sentence of incarceration, and allow those on probation and parole to register to vote. Accordingly, we urge this committee to Support HB 847, HB 790 (and HB 617).

Chairman Mayhew and Members of the House Committee on Corrections and Public Institutions, I am writing in support of HB 847, sponsored by my House member, Rep. Anderson. It is important to restore voting rights for persons on probation or parole. Voting is an important responsibility, and those released from incarceration should be encouraged to contribute all of their gifts to the community, including becoming frequent voters. This is policy that my former employers, Empower Missouri and Metropolitan Congregations United, have supported, and I still agree with that position and ask you to vote DO PASS and to move this to floor debate quickly.

I support restoring voting rights to persons on probation or parole. These individuals have served their court ordered punishment and are expected to be working, contributing, taxpaying members of society while on probation or parole. There is no reason to deprive them of the right to vote, or representation in our government. Restricting this right is an extrajudicial punishment. It should be our goal to reintegrate these individuals, not ostracize them by disenfranchisement. Thank you for considering this bill.

I wholeheartedly support HB 847, HB 790 (and HB 617), which would restore voting rights to Missouri citizens on probation or parole following a felony conviction. Currently, Missourians cannot vote during incarceration, as well as after release if they remain on probation or parole. These citizens are living and working in their communities, paying taxes, but not having a say in their government. Voters of color are significantly disproportionately disqualified from voting; one in 19 African Americans of voting age is disenfranchised due to a felony - a rate 3.5 times that of non-African Americans. This legislation would restore the right to vote after serving their time - a reform that is proven to reduce recidivism and promote good citizenship. This legislation could open democracy and restore a fundamental right and responsibility to 50,000 Missourians.

This bill would restore voting eligibility to Missourians on probation or parole for felonies. They would regain their right to vote immediately after incarceration ends. More than 75% of people who can't vote due to a criminal record are not incarcerated but have served their time. They are living in our communities, having completed incarceration, or while being on probation or parole. These people are working and paying taxes, yet they have no voice in their government. This much needed reform would place Missouri in line with national trends favoring rights restoration in states due to proven impact on reducing recidivism and promoting citizenship. Studies confirm that voting while on probation and parole reduces recidivism. Since 2020, eight states have changed their laws to provide for voting rights after incarceration. Missouri should join this list by allowing people to vote once they have completed their sentence of incarceration and allow those on probation and parole to register to vote. Voting encourages engagement and participation because it gives people a stake in their communities. The League of Women Voters of Missouri goes on record in support of HB 847.

I strongly urge the committee to vote yes on HB 847 to restore voting rights to Missourians on probation or parole following a felony conviction. Missouri citizens are unable to vote during incarceration, as well as after release if they remain on probation or parole. Nationwide, nearly 5 million people cannot vote because of a conviction in their past, and more than 3/4 of them are NOT incarcerated, but living and working in their communities, paying taxes, but unable to make their voices heard at the ballot box. This legislation would restore their right to vote after they have served their time - a reform that is proven to reduce recidivism and promote good citizenship. Our vote is our voice. Missouri will be a stronger, more loving community if we welcome all voices. Citizens of a democracy have the right to vote. We need not fear the voices (the votes) of our fellow citizens who served their time for a crime committed. Casting a vote is a peaceful act. As a poll worker for many years, I have witnessed the satisfaction and pride people express as they cast their vote. It is an honorable act. Let us be a more loving community and restore the right to vote to our fellow citizens as they return to the community after paying the price for their crimes in prison.

I am asking for a vote in favor of this bills, each of which restores the right to vote for individuals “on papers”. Suffrage has been shown to reduce recidivism by allowing meaningful participation in one’s community. It is important that voting rights are restored to individuals who know best what helps and hinders their everyday lives - these individuals are not always represented in state policymaking. We must provide means by which individuals on probation or parole are given rights to vote. A person who has served their time in prison and is on parole or probation has a job and pays taxes or they won't be on parole/probation very long. If we expect them to reintegrate into the community and they are cooperating, they should be allowed to vote. It's just that simple. I urge the committee to pass on this bill. Thank you.

I would like to submit my testimony in support of HB 847, which would restore voting rights to people who are on probation. As a member of League of Women Voters, I support a justice system that is just, effective, equitable, transparent, and that fosters public trust at all stages, including, sentencing, incarceration, and re-entry. This includes the goal of promoting the successful re-entry into communities for those who have been incarcerated. When we delay the restoration of voting rights until a term of probation or parole is complete – which can be years – this can mean that individuals who know best what helps and hinders their everyday lives are not always represented in state policymaking. If we expect people to reintegrate into our communities successfully, we must also provide them pathways to meaningful engagement. This includes engagement in the democratic process. Thank you for your consideration.

My name is Randee Steffen and I live in unincorporated St. Louis County near Creve Coeur. I am in favor of this bill because I think that once someone has served their time, they deserve to be a full functioning citizen, including the right to vote. It has been proven that people who have the right to vote after they have completed their sentencing are less likely to go back to jail. They feel like they are important members of society. These people are working in their communities and paying taxes. They should also have representation in government.

Hello my name is Rasheeda Quarles I am in support for the bills HB-603 and also HB 774 and HB 729. We are in need of the support from the outside to take on issues that our family members are having inside of the walls of these prisons. Within these facilities there are family members working as the warden, assist warden and the wife of assist warden that are case managers to be able to reject the IR's that the inmates bring fourth for it just get dismissed without care. Thank you for listening and I ask that you please hear what we are speaking on and about.

It is important to reintegrate into society those that have offended and the right to vote is a meaningful way to do just that. To delay this right, sometimes for years, denies human dignity of those that have "paid" for their crimes.

I applaud Members of the Missouri House of Representatives for working across the aisle to restore voting rights to citizens who are on parole after having been held accountable for their crimes and done their time, and to those who were not incarcerated and are under state supervision/on probation. Being able to vote, to participate in the civic life of their communities while working and paying taxes and trying to stay on the straight-and-narrow, has been shown to reduce recidivism and benefits us all.

Please support HB 847 as this legislation would open democracy to over 50,000 Missourians! This legislation would restore the right to vote to Missourians following a felony conviction, which reduces recidivism and promote good citizenship! Nationwide, nearly 5 million people cannot vote because of a conviction in their past -- and more than 3/4 of them are NOT incarcerated, but living and working in their communities, paying taxes, but not having a say in their government. I urge you to pass this important legislation.

Persons who are maintaining the requirements of their probation or parole should have suffrage rights unless their crime was election-related. We expect them to find jobs, pay taxes, stay clean, and fulfill the responsibilities of community living. Their suffrage right should not be infringed if they are meeting probation or parole requirements.

After someone has served time in prison, it is best for them and for society at large to do everything possible to be restored as full citizens with a stake in their communities. If we truly have a "department of corrections" (and not merely a system of punishment and revenge) then it is our duty to restore voting rights to citizens on parole or probation.

People that commit crimes against society forfeit any say on how society is run. This bill supports having offenders vote on amendments etc., that could benefit them if they are repeat offenders. They should not have a say in anything until they have paid their dues in full.
