I'm an 8-year US Army vet, and I believe that vets who are 100% disabled should be exempt from property tax. US citizens are taxed coming and going, from every level of government, whether federal, state, or local. You guys get plenty of money. Let's give a break to our vets who gave SO MUCH and are now on a fixed income. This does not apply to me, but it applies to my military brothers and sisters. Thank you for your consideration.

I am 70% disabled but considered total and permanent by the Va. It is called employability and I receive the 100% consideration. Will this affect those of us like me that can't make above the poverty wage? Those that are rated 100%, can work and make as much as they want. I do however, support this either way.

I am Opposed to this Bill and giving Real Estate and Personal Property Tax Exemptions at 100% to One Missouri Group of Residents over other Residents of Our State. This wrong! The Fiscal-Note is a minim of $33-Million Dollars in lost revenue to Political Subdivisions across our State.
