2 4-15, by deleting said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

3
4 "(1) "Clinically indicated vitamin therapy", vitamin supplementation prescribed to treat a 5 diagnosed micronutrient deficiency supported by laboratory evidence, or prescribed for a 6 guideline supported high-risk clinical condition for which supplementation is medically
7 necessary. Vitamins used solely for general wellness or without a disease directed indication 8 shall not be covered, consistent with federal medical expense standards;

9 (2) "Medically tailored groceries", a selection of groceries, including but not limited to 10 fruits, vegetables, grains, beans, lean proteins, or dairy, that is prescribed by a registered dietitian 11 or qualified clinical team for individuals who are able to prepare food. Such groceries may be 12 specifically selected by a registered dietitian or qualified clinical team, or selected by a 13 participant from a pantry in accordance with dietary recommendations set by a registered 14 dietitian or qualified clinical team;

15 (3) "Medically tailored meals", meals used to meet the specific dietary needs of 16 individuals living with one or more chronic conditions or diet-related conditions. Such meals are 17 prescribed by a registered dietitian or qualified clinical team and home-delivered for individuals 18 who are not able to prepare food on their own;

19 (4) "Prescription micronutrient therapy", the provision of vitamins or single-nutrient 20 supplements used primarily for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of 21 disease, and not primarily for general health or wellness, consistent with the federal definition of 22 "medical care";

23 (5) "Produce prescriptions", the prescription of fruits, vegetables, or other healthy foods 24 with no added fats, sugars, or salts to at-risk patients by a registered dietitian or qualified clinical 25 team, typically in the form of coupons or vouchers for local farmers' markets, grocery stores, or 26 mobile markets."; and

27
28 Further amend said bill and section, Page 2, Lines 30-31, by deleting said lines and inserting in 29 lieu thereof the following:
