 20 determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the person named in the petition is a sexually 21 violent predator. If such probable cause determination is made, the judge shall direct that person be taken 22 into custody and direct that the person be transferred to an appropriate secure facility, including, but not 23 limited to, a county jail. If the person is ordered to the department of mental health, the director of the 24 department of mental health shall determine the appropriate secure facility to house the person under the

26 2. Within seventy-two hours after a person is taken into custody pursuant to subsection 1 of this 27 section, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, such person shall be provided with notice of, 28 and an opportunity to appear in person at, a hearing to contest probable cause as to whether the detained 29 person is a sexually violent predator. At this hearing the court shall:

30 (1) Verify the detainee's identity; and

31 (2) Determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the person is a sexually violent
 32 predator. The state may rely upon the petition and supplement the petition with additional documentary 33 evidence or live testimony.

34 3. At the probable cause hearing as provided in subsection 2 of this section, the detained person 35 shall have the following rights in addition to the rights previously specified:

4 multidisciplinary team.

5 4. If the probable cause determination is made, the court shall direct that the person be 6 transferred to an appropriate secure facility, including, but not limited to, a county jail, for an evaluation

16 except that, if the order directs the director of the department of mental health to have the person

10 to whether a person is a sexually violent predator may be appealed.

11 2. If the court or jury determines that the person is a sexually violent predator, the person shall be 20         6. The department of mental health is authorized to enter into an interagency agreement with the 21 department of corrections for the control and care, including health care services, of persons committed to 22 the department of mental health by the court as a sexually violent predator, provided the department of 23 corrections has necessary space and services available and the director of the department of corrections

25 mental health. Such persons who are in the control and care of the department of corrections under an 26 interagency agreement shall be housed and managed separately from offenders in the custody of the 27 department of corrections, and except for occasional instances of supervised incidental contact, shall be
