2 Pages 20-21, Section 192.2515, Lines 1-31, by deleting all of said section and lines; and

3
4 Further amend said bill, Page 121, Section 630.1170, Line 43, by inserting after said section and 5 line the following:

6
7 "632.305. 1. An application for detention for evaluation and treatment at a mental health 8 facility may be executed by any adult person, who need not be an attorney or represented by an 9 attorney, on a form provided by the court for such purpose, and shall allege under oath~~[, without~~ 10 ~~a notarization requirement,]~~ that the applicant has reason to believe that the respondent is 11 suffering from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself
12 or to others. The application shall specify the factual information on which such belief is based 13 and should contain the names and addresses of all persons known to the applicant who have 14 knowledge of such facts through personal observation.

15 2. The filing of a written application in court by any adult person, who need not be an 16 attorney or represented by an attorney, shall authorize the applicant to bring the matter before the 17 court on an ex parte basis to determine whether the respondent should be taken into custody and 18 transported to a mental health facility. The application may be filed in the court having probate 19 jurisdiction in any county where the respondent may be found. If the court finds that there is 20 probable cause, either upon testimony under oath or upon a review of affidavits, declarations, or 21 other supporting documentation, to believe that the respondent may be suffering from a mental 22 disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, it shall direct a 23 peace officer to take the respondent into custody and transport him or her to a mental health
24 facility for detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours
25 unless further detention and treatment is authorized pursuant to this chapter. Nothing herein 26 shall be construed to prohibit the court, in the exercise of its discretion, from giving the 27 respondent an opportunity to be heard.

28 3. A peace officer may take a person into custody for detention for evaluation and 29 treatment at a mental health facility for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours only when such 30 peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder
31 and that the likelihood of serious harm by such person to himself or herself or others is imminent

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 unless such person is immediately taken into custody. Upon arrival at the mental health facility,
2 the peace officer who conveyed such person or caused him or her to be conveyed shall either 3 present the application for detention for evaluation and treatment upon which the court has 4 issued a finding of probable cause and the respondent was taken into custody or complete an 5 application for initial detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six 6 hours which shall be based upon his or her own personal observations or investigations and shall 7 contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.

8 4. If a person presents himself or herself or is presented by others to a mental health 9 facility and a licensed physician, a registered professional nurse or a mental health professional 10 designated by the head of the facility and approved by the department for such purpose has 11 reasonable cause to believe that the person is mentally disordered and presents an imminent 12 likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others unless he or she is accepted for 13 detention, the licensed physician, the mental health professional or the registered professional 14 nurse designated by the facility and approved by the department may complete an application for 15 detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours. The 16 application shall be based on his or her own personal observations or investigation and shall 17 contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.

18 5. (1) No notarization shall be required for an application, or for any affidavits, 19 declarations, or other documents supporting an application, completed or executed by:

20 (a) A peace officer under subsection 3 of this section;

21 (b) A licensed physician, mental health professional, or registered professional nurse 22 under subsection 4 of this section; or

23 (c) An employee acting on behalf of a hospital, as defined in section 197.020, under 24 subsections 1 and 2 of this section.

25 (2) The application and any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting the 26 application shall be subject to the provisions of section 492.060 allowing for declaration under 27 penalty of perjury."; and

28
29 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 30 accordingly.
