FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

§1.355 - Daylight Saving as New Standard Time Pact

Officials from the Office of Administration assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization.

Oversight notes that the above-mentioned agency has stated the proposal will not have a direct fiscal impact on their organization. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact on the fiscal note.

Oversight notes, according to the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL):

“In the last seven years, 19 states have enacted legislation to provide for year-round daylight-saving time, if Congress were to allow such a change, and in some cases, if surrounding states enact the same legislation. Because federal law does not currently allow full-time DST, Congress would have to act before states could adopt changes.

The 19 states are:

- Texas (2025)
- Oklahoma (2024)
- Colorado and Kentucky (resolution) (2022)
- Alabama, Georgia, Minnesota, Mississippi, and Montana (2021)
- Idaho, Louisiana, South Carolina, Utah, and Wyoming (2020)
- Delaware, Maine, Oregon, Tennessee, and Washington (2019)
- Florida (2018)

Resolutions passed by a single chamber in Kentucky (2022) and Ohio (2020) in prior years have been removed from the NCSL count.”

FISCAL IMPACT – Local Government	FY 2027 (10 Mo.)	FY 2028	FY 2029

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

No direct fiscal impact on small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
