JOSEPH ENGLER, Chief Clerk

JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to Article I of the Constitution of Missouri, by adopting one new section relating to educational freedom.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2026, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article I, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adopting one new section, to be known as Section 37, to read as follows:

Section 37. That the government shall not deny or infringe upon a parent's fundamental right to participate in and direct the education of the parent's child. Such right shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) The right to homeschool or otherwise educate a child outside of the public school system free from any and all government regulation, restriction, or record-keeping requirements, regardless of whether the parent receives state aid, grant moneys, scholarship funds, or any other financial assistance or programming from the government, either directly or indirectly, for purposes of educating a child; and
