121 hearing commission which concern complaints against licensed brokers or salespersons and 122 cause such digests to be mailed to all licensees periodically. Such digests may also contain 123 reports as to new or changed rules adopted by the commission and other information of 124 significance to licensees.

11 twenty years of the plaintiff attaining twenty-one years of age or within three years of 12 the date the plaintiff discovers, or reasonably should have discovered, that the injury or 13 illness was caused by child sex trafficking.

14 3. This section shall apply to any action commenced on or after August 28, 2026.

542.301. 1. Property which comes into the custody of an officer or of a court as the 2 result of any seizure and which has not been forfeited pursuant to any other provisions of law 3 or returned to the claimant shall be disposed of as follows:

4 (1) Stolen property, or property acquired in any other manner declared an offense by 5 chapters 569 and 570, but not including any of the property referred to in subdivision (2) of 6 this subsection, shall be delivered by order of court upon claim having been made and 7 established, to the person who is entitled to possession:

8 (a) The claim shall be made by written motion filed with the court with which a 9 motion to suppress has been, or may be, filed. The claim shall be barred if not made within 10 one year from the date of the seizure;

11 (b) Upon the filing of such motion, the judge shall order notice to be given to all 12 persons interested in the property, including other claimants and the person from whose 13 possession the property was seized, of the time, place and nature of the hearing to be held on 14 the motion. The notice shall be given in a manner reasonably calculated to reach the attention 15 of all interested persons. Notice may be given to unknown persons and to persons whose 16 address is unknown by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. No 17 property shall be delivered to any claimant unless all interested persons have been given a 18 reasonable opportunity to appear and to be heard;

19 (c) After a hearing, the judge shall order the property delivered to the person or 20 persons entitled to possession, if any. The judge may direct that delivery of property required 21 as evidence in a criminal proceeding shall be postponed until the need no longer exists;

22 (d) A law enforcement officer having custody of seized property may, at any time that 23 seized property has ceased to be useful as evidence, request that the prosecuting attorney of 24 the county in which property was seized file a motion with the court of such county for the 25 disposition of the seized property. If the prosecuting attorney does not file such motion 26 within sixty days of the request by the law enforcement officer having custody of the seized

27 property, then such officer may request that the attorney general file a written motion with the 28 circuit court of the county or judicial district in which the seizure occurred. Upon filing of the 29 motion, the court shall issue an order directing the disposition of the property. Such 30 disposition may, if the property is not claimed within one year from the date of the seizure or 31 if no one establishes a right to it, and the seized property has ceased to be useful as evidence, 32 include a public sale of the property. Pursuant to a motion properly filed and granted under 33 this section, the proceeds of any sale, less necessary expenses of preservation and sale, shall 34 be paid into the county treasury for the use of the county. If the property is not salable, the 35 judge may order its destruction. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if no claim is 36 filed within one year of the seizure and no motion pursuant to this section is filed within six 37 months thereafter, and the seized property has ceased to be useful as evidence, the property 38 shall be deemed abandoned, converted to cash and shall be turned over immediately to the 39 treasurer pursuant to section 447.543;

40 (e) If the property is a living animal or is perishable, the judge may, at any time, order 41 it sold at public sale. The proceeds shall be held in lieu of the property. A written description 42 of the property sold shall be filed with the judge making the order of sale so that the claimant 43 may identify the property. If the proceeds are not claimed within the time limited for the 44 claim of the property, the proceeds shall be paid into the county treasury. If the property is 45 not salable, the judge may order its destruction.

46 (2) Weapons, tools, devices, computers, computer equipment, computer software, 47 computer hardware, cellular telephones, or other devices capable of accessing the internet, 48 and substances other than motor vehicles, aircraft or watercraft, used by the owner or with the 49 owner's consent as a means for committing felonies other than the offense of possessing 50 burglary tools in violation of section 569.180, and property, the possession of which is an 51 offense under the laws of this state or which has been used by the owner, or used with the 52 owner's acquiescence or consent, as a raw material or as an instrument to manufacture, 53 produce, or distribute, or be used as a means of storage of anything the possession of which is 54 an offense under the laws of this state, or which any statute authorizes or directs to be seized, 55 other than lawfully possessed weapons seized by an officer incident to an arrest, shall be 56 forfeited to the state of Missouri.

57 2. The officer who has custody of the property shall inform the prosecuting attorney 58 of the fact of seizure and of the nature of the property. The prosecuting attorney shall 59 thereupon file a written motion with the court with which the motion to suppress has been, or 60 may be, filed praying for an order directing the forfeiture of the property. If the prosecuting 61 attorney of a county in which property is seized fails to file a motion with the court for the 62 disposition of the seized property within sixty days of the request by a law enforcement 63 officer, the officer having custody of the seized property may request the attorney general to 64 file a written motion with the circuit court of the county or judicial district in which the 65 seizure occurred. Upon filing of the motion, the court shall issue an order directing the 66 disposition of the property. The signed motion shall be returned to the requesting agency. A 67 motion may also be filed by any person claiming the right to possession of the property 68 praying that the court declare the property not subject to forfeiture and order it delivered to 69 the moving party.

70 3. Upon the filing of a motion either by the prosecuting attorney or by a claimant, the 71 judge shall order notice to be given to all persons interested in the property, including the 72 person out of whose possession the property was seized and any lienors, of the time, place 73 and nature of the hearing to be held on the motion. The notice shall be given in a manner 74 reasonably calculated to reach the attention of all interested persons. Notice may be given to 75 unknown persons and to persons of unknown address by publication in a newspaper of 76 general circulation in the county. Every interested person shall be given a reasonable 77 opportunity to appear and to be heard as to the nature of the person's claim to the property and 78 upon the issue of whether or not it is subject to forfeiture.

79 4. If the evidence is clear and convincing that the property in issue is in fact of a kind 80 subject to forfeiture under this subsection, the judge shall declare it forfeited and order its 81 destruction or sale. The judge shall direct that the destruction or sale of property needed as 82 evidence in a criminal proceeding shall be postponed until this need no longer exists.

83 5. If the forfeited property can be put to a lawful use, it may be ordered sold after any 84 alterations which are necessary to adapt it to a lawful use have been made. In the case of 85 computers, computer equipment, computer software, computer hardware, cellular telephones, 86 or other devices capable of accessing the internet, or other devices used in the acquisition, 87 possession, or distribution of child pornography as it existed prior to August 28, 2026, child 88 sexual abuse material, or obscene material, the law enforcement agency in possession of 89 such items may, upon court order, retain possession of such property and convert such 90 property to the use of the law enforcement agency for use in criminal investigations. If there 91 is a holder of a bona fide lien against property which has been used as a means for committing 92 an offense or which has been used as a raw material or as an instrument to manufacture or 93 produce anything which is an offense to possess, who establishes that the use was without the 94 lienholder's acquiescence or consent, the proceeds, less necessary expenses of preservation 95 and sale, shall be paid to the lienholder to the amount of the lienholder's lien. The remaining 96 amount shall be paid into the county treasury.

97 6. If the property is perishable the judge may order it sold at a public sale or 98 destroyed, as may be appropriate, prior to a hearing. The proceeds of a sale, less necessary 99 expenses of preservation and sale, shall be held in lieu of the property.

100 7. When a warrant has been issued to search for and seize allegedly obscene matter 101 for forfeiture to the state, after an adversary hearing, the judge, upon return of the warrant 102 with the matter seized, shall give notice of the fact to the prosecuting attorney of the county in 103 which the matter was seized and the dealer, exhibitor or displayer and shall conduct further 104 adversary proceedings to determine whether the matter is subject to forfeiture. If the evidence 105 is clear and convincing that the matter is obscene as defined by law and it was being held or 106 displayed for sale, exhibition, distribution or circulation to the public, the judge shall declare 107 it to be obscene and forfeited to the state and order its destruction or other disposition; except 108 that, no forfeiture shall be declared without the dealer, distributor or displayer being given a 109 reasonable opportunity to appear in opposition and without the judge having thoroughly 110 examined each item. If the material to be seized is the same as or another copy of matter that 111 has already been determined to be obscene in a criminal proceeding against the dealer, 112 exhibitor, displayer or such person's agent, the determination of obscenity in the criminal 113 proceeding shall constitute clear and convincing evidence that the matter to be forfeited 114 pursuant to this subsection is obscene. Except when the dealer, exhibitor or displayer 115 consents to a longer period, or by such person's actions or pleadings willfully prevents the 116 prompt resolution of the hearing, judgment shall be rendered within ten days of the return of 117 the warrant. If the matter is not found to be obscene or is not found to have been held or 118 displayed for sale, exhibition or distribution to the public, or a judgment is not entered within 119 the time provided for, the matter shall be restored forthwith to the dealer, exhibitor or 120 displayer.

121 8. If an appeal is taken by the dealer, exhibitor or displayer from an adverse judgment, 122 the case should be assigned for hearing at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every 123 way. Destruction or disposition of a matter declared forfeited shall be postponed until the 124 judgment has become final by exhaustion of appeal, or by expiration of the time for appeal, 125 and until the matter is no longer needed as evidence in a criminal proceeding.

126 9. A determination of obscenity, pursuant to this subsection, shall not be admissible in 127 any criminal proceeding against any person or corporation for sale or possession of obscene 128 matter; except that dealer, distributor or displayer from which the obscene matter was seized 129 for forfeiture to the state.

130 10. When allegedly obscene matter or pornographic material for minors has been 131 seized under a search warrant issued pursuant to subsection 2 of section 542.281 and the 132 matter is no longer needed as evidence in a criminal proceeding the prosecuting attorney of 133 the county in which the matter was seized may file a written motion with the circuit court of 134 the county or judicial district in which the seizure occurred praying for an order directing the 135 forfeiture of the matter. Upon filing of the motion, the court shall set a date for a hearing.
136 Written notice of date, time, place and nature of the hearing shall be personally served upon

137 the owner, dealer, exhibitor, displayer or such person's agent. Such notice shall be served no 138 less than five days before the hearing.

139 11. If the evidence is clear and convincing that the matter is obscene as defined by 140 law, and that the obscene material was being held or displayed for sale, exhibition, 141 distribution or circulation to the public or that the matter is pornographic for minors and that 142 the pornographic material was being held or displayed for sale, exhibition, distribution or 143 circulation to minors, the judge shall declare it to be obscene or pornographic for minors and 144 forfeited to the state and order its destruction or other disposition. A determination that the 145 matter is obscene in a criminal proceeding as well as a determination that such obscene 146 material was held or displayed for sale, exhibition, distribution or circulation to the public or a 147 determination that the matter is pornographic for minors in a criminal proceeding as well as a 148 determination that such pornographic material was held or displayed for sale, exhibition, 149 distribution or circulation to minors shall be clear and convincing evidence that such material 150 should be forfeited to the state; except that, no forfeiture shall be declared without the dealer, 151 distributor or displayer being given a reasonable opportunity to appear in opposition and 152 without a judge having thoroughly examined each item. A dealer, distributor or displayer 153 shall have had reasonable opportunity to appear in opposition if the matter the prosecutor 154 seeks to destroy is the same matter that formed the basis of a criminal proceeding against the 155 dealer, distributor or displayer where the dealer, distributor or displayer has been charged and 156 found guilty of holding or displaying for sale, exhibiting, distributing or circulating obscene 157 material to the public or pornographic material for minors to minors. If the matter is not 158 found to be obscene, or if obscene material is not found to have been held or displayed for 159 sale, exhibition, distribution or circulation to the public, or if the matter is not found to be 160 pornographic for minors or if pornographic material is not found to have been held or 161 displayed for sale, exhibition, distribution or circulation to minors, the matter shall be restored 162 forthwith to the dealer, exhibitor or displayer.

163 12. If an appeal is taken by the dealer, exhibitor or displayer from an adverse 164 judgment, the case shall be assigned for hearing at the earliest practicable date and expedited 165 in every way. Destruction or disposition of matter declared forfeited shall be postponed until 166 the judgment has become final by exhaustion of appeal, or by expiration of the time for 167 appeal, and until the matter is no longer needed as evidence in a criminal proceeding.

168 13. A determination of obscenity shall not be admissible in any criminal proceeding 169 against any person or corporation for sale or possession of obscene matter.

170 14. An appeal by any party shall be allowed from the judgment of the court as in other 171 civil actions.

172 15. All other property still in the custody of an officer or of a court as the result of any 173 seizure and which has not been forfeited pursuant to this section or any other provision of law

174 after three years following the seizure and which has ceased to be useful as evidence shall be 175 deemed abandoned, converted to cash and shall be turned over immediately to the treasurer 176 pursuant to section 447.543.
