

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FIFTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me. (Luke 4:18)

Eternal God, our loving creator, we come to You at this moment of prayer humbly and gratefully for in You is the answer to all our questions, the solution to all our problems, and the goal of all our noblest endeavors.

May it be our aim, as we gather in this historic chamber, to meet the needs of struggling humanity, to strengthen the ties that unite us together, and to find the way to peace among the important interests of our state.

God bless Missouri. Unite our people in safeguarding our liberties, in defending our institutions, and in supporting all citizens everywhere who live and support service to others.

May we realize more than ever that Your Spirit must touch and transform our own spirits if we are to continue to be with You because You alone are the life, light, and the law of mercy.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by William David Brown.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1788, Pages 5-6, Section 130.031, Lines 142-169, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"14. (1) A committee soliciting a recurring contribution for an expenditure or printed or broadcast matter may accept the recurring contribution only if the contributor gives affirmative consent for the recurring contribution. The passive action of a contributor, including but not limited to failing to uncheck a prechecked box authorizing a recurring contribution, shall not constitute affirmative consent.

(2) If a contributor affirmatively consents to making a recurring contribution, the committee soliciting the recurring contribution shall:

(a) Provide a receipt to the contributor for each contribution that clearly and conspicuously discloses:

- a. The frequency of the recurring contributions;
- b. The duration of the recurring contributions; and
- c. All information needed to cancel recurring contributions; and

(b) At the request of the contributor, terminate any future scheduled deductions prior to the next scheduled deduction date.

(3) A committee that solicits and receives a contribution in violation of this section shall return the contribution to the contributor immediately after receiving the contribution. The amount of any contribution received in violation of this section is an outstanding obligation of the committee that solicited and received the contribution until the contribution is repaid to the contributor.

(4) The Missouri ethics commission may impose a civil penalty on committees violating this subsection of up to one hundred times the amount of the contribution received in violation of this subsection.

(5) Recurring contributions made under this subsection to support or oppose a candidate or ballot measure shall automatically end after the election at which the candidate or measure appeared on the ballot, except that recurring contributions made to any candidate who wins a primary election may continue until the general election."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Murphy, House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Murphy, HCS HB 1788, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Representative Murphy, HCS HB 1788, as amended, was ordered perfected and printed.
