

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FORTY-THIRD DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 30, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Seitz.

Father, we come before Your throne of grace seeking that our will would align with Yours, as we do the business of the House.

We ask for Your blessing; we ask that You keep us focused on You; and we ask that the radiance of Your light would shine upon us and that by Your grace we might find favor.

We ask to see You today, in the face of Christ Jesus, the Prince of Peace, as we do the people's work.

And the House says, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by Mitchell Riley.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Mitchell Riley.

The Journal of the forty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 3000, Page 3, Section 29.230, Line 60, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"321.295. 1. The board of directors of a fire protection district may distribute surplus or unneeded supplies or property to:

(1) volunteer fire protection associations, as defined in section 320.300, fire protection districts, and fire departments;

(2) any organization registered as a nonprofit organization under 26 U.S.C. Section 501(c)3, as amended;

(3) public service corporations that provide training to fire departments, emergency medical technicians, or police officers in search and recovery techniques, water rescue, ice rescue, or watercraft operation; and in the same manner as provided for the distribution of federal surplus property.

(4) other eligible donees, as such term is defined in connection with the federal surplus property program;

2. The board of directors of a fire protection district may sell surplus or unneeded supplies or property that are not transferred to fire protection associations, districts, or departments or eligible donees to the general public. For items with a value of five hundred dollars or less, the board shall obtain the name of the purchaser, their phone number and address, and a description of the property sold, the amount paid, and the date. All items with a value over five hundred dollars shall be sold on an online auction platform approved by the office of administration or by sealed bid.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of this section to the contrary, the board of directors of a fire protection district shall not donate or sell surplus emergency vehicles or unneeded supplies or property to board members, officers, or employees of the fire protection district or their relatives within the fourth degree by consanguinity or affinity, nor to an entity of which a board member, officer, or employee is a board member or officer unless such surplus is sold on an online auction platform approved by the Missouri office of administration.

4. The board of directors of a fire protection district, or any person designated by the board, may conduct or authorize an audit of any transfer, donation, or sale made under this section. Such audit may include review of records, receipts, and documentation maintained under this section to ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and policies of the district. The results of any audit conducted under this subsection shall be made available to the governing body of the fire protection district and retained in accordance with applicable records retention schedules."; and

COMMUNICATIONS

March 26, 2026

Joe Engler, Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
201 W Capitol Avenue
Jefferson City, MO 65101

RE: Written Disclosure of Potential Personal Interest Pursuant to §105.431, RSMo

Dear Mr. Engler,

Pursuant to Section 105.461, RSMo, I hereby file this written report of possible personal interest in legislation on which the Missouri House of Representative has voted on during legislative session on Thursday, March 26th. My husband, William Byrnes, is employed by the State of Missouri as an Associate Circuit Judge in St. Charles County. Therefore, I voted present on HB 2012.

I am making this disclosure out of an abundance of caution to ensure transparency and compliance with Missouri ethics law. Should any additional circumstances arise that require further disclosure, I will supplement this filing as required by law. In compliance with Section 105.461, RSMo, I respectfully request that this letter be published in the Journal of the House.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tricia Byrnes
State Representative
District 63

The following members' presence was noted: Ealy and Lewis.
