

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is a God. (III John 1:11)

O Loving God who hears our prayers and answers them according to Your holy wisdom, to You we come in this silent moment of quiet devotion. We humble ourselves in Your presence, confessing that we have done that which we should not have done and left undone that which we should have done. Have mercy upon us, forgive us, and send us out into this afternoon with creative minds to think clearly, with hearts warm with love to spread happiness, and with hands ready to serve You more fully and our citizens more faithfully.

Help us to bridge the divides which separate us, to heal the wounds which scar our political life, to foster unity among our citizens, and to promote cooperation between parties and ideas.

So now breathe upon us Your Spirit; reveal to us Your ways and give us courage to walk in them to the glory of Your holy name, now and forever.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by Anthony Agnew.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Wyatt Legenza.

The Journal of the forty-sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

13. The provisions of this section do not limit the rights of a property owner or limit the authority of a law enforcement officer to arrest an unlawful occupant for trespassing, vandalism, theft, or other crimes.

14. All proceedings under this section are in addition to any other available civil or criminal remedies, unless otherwise specifically provided in this section.

(2) The terms of the ex parte order or full order of protection issued under this section are enforceable by all remedies available at law for the enforcement of a judgment, and the court may punish a respondent who willfully violates the ex parte order to the same extent as provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

534.604. 1. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a party, against whom an ex parte order under section 534.602 has been entered and who has notice of such order entered, has committed an act in violation of such order, the law enforcement officer shall arrest the offending party-respondent regardless of whether the violation occurred in the presence of the arresting law enforcement officer.
