

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FIFTIETH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 13, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Seitz.

Father, we thank You for bringing us together today as the elected representatives of the people of Missouri.

We acknowledge Your only begotten son, Jesus, as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. We ask that during this moment of stillness, that through our prayers, You are exalted in the earth.

We ask the Holy Spirit's guidance as we deliberate and make the decisions that affect so many. Help us to remember that You alone are God, and there is none other. Forgive us when we sin against You in thought, word, or deed.

And the House said, "Amen."

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Charlotte Elise Busick.

The Journal of the forty-ninth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

AMEND House Bill No. 2436, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"578.006. 1. A person commits the offense of making a malicious false report of animal abuse if:
(1) The person purposely makes a report to a law enforcement agency or an applicable government agency alleging the abuse of any animal in a manner punishable under section 578.012;
(2) The person knows that such a report is false;
(3) The person makes the report with the purpose of disrupting, harassing, causing a monetary loss to, or disturbing the peace of the owner of the animal; and
(4) Such report causes a disruption, harassment, monetary loss, or disturbance of the owner of the animal.

2. The offense of making a malicious false report of animal abuse is a class C misdemeanor.

3. It shall be an absolute defense for a prosecution of the offense of making a malicious false report of animal abuse if the reporting party reported an incident of animal abuse out of a good faith, reasonable belief that an animal was being abused. The defendant shall have the burden of injecting this defense under this subsection. If a defendant asserts that his or her report of animal abuse was made from a good faith, reasonable belief that an animal was being abused, the state shall have the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant did not have a good faith, reasonable belief that such a report was true.

578.012. 1. A person commits the offense of animal abuse if he or she:

(1) Intentionally or purposely kills an animal in any manner not allowed by or expressly exempted from the provisions of sections 578.005 to 578.023 and 273.030;
(2) Purposely or intentionally causes injury or suffering to an animal; or
(3) Having ownership or custody of an animal knowingly fails to provide adequate care which results in substantial harm to the animal.

2. Animal abuse is a class A misdemeanor, unless the defendant has previously been found guilty of animal abuse or the suffering involved in subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of this section is the result of torture ~~[or]~~, mutilation ~~[consciously]~~, or starvation knowingly inflicted while the animal was alive, in which case it is a class E felony."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Mayhew, House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Sharpe (4) offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Bill No. 2436, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"578.009. 1. A person commits the offense of animal neglect if he or she:

- (1) Has custody or ownership of an animal and fails to provide adequate care; ~~or~~
- (2) Has custody or ownership of an animal, excluding livestock as defined in section 265.300, and fails to provide adequate control; or
- (3) Knowingly abandons an animal in any place without making provisions for its adequate care or adequate control.
 2. The offense of animal neglect is a class C misdemeanor unless the person:
 - (1) Has previously been found guilty of an offense under this section, or an offense in another jurisdiction which would constitute an offense under this section, in which case it is a class B misdemeanor;
 - (2) Fails to provide adequate care or adequate control that results in property damage of another, in which case it is a class B misdemeanor; however, if such damage exceeds seven hundred fifty dollars, it is a class E felony;
 - (3) Fails to provide adequate care or adequate control that results in physical injury, as defined in 556.061, to a person, in which case it is a class A misdemeanor;
 - (4) Fails to provide adequate care or adequate control that results in serious physical injury, as defined in section 556.061, to a person, in which case it is a class E felony; or
 - (5) Fails to provide adequate care or adequate control that results in death to a person, in which case it is a class D felony.
 3. ~~[All fines and penalties for a first finding of guilt under this section may be waived by the court if the person found guilty of animal neglect shows that adequate, permanent remedies for the neglect have been made.—Reasonable costs incurred for the care and maintenance of neglected animals may not be waived.—This section shall not apply to the provisions of section 578.007 or chapter 272.~~
 - 4.] In addition to any other penalty imposed by this section, the court may order a person found guilty of animal neglect to pay all reasonable costs and expenses necessary for:
 - (1) The care and maintenance of neglected animals within the person's custody or ownership;
 - (2) The disposal of any dead or diseased animals within the person's custody or ownership;
 - (3) The reduction of resulting organic debris affecting the immediate area of the neglect; and
 - (4) The avoidance or minimization of any public health risks created by the neglect of the animals.
4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the acts or facilities exempted under section 578.007."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Roberts offered House Amendment No. 1 to House Amendment No. 3.

CORRECTION TO THE HOUSE JOURNAL

HOUSE JOURNAL CORRECTION AFFIDAVIT

I, State Representative Jamie Gragg, District 140, hereby state and affirm that on Pages 1726-1727, of the Journal of the House, my vote on which HCS HBs 2387 & 2480 was read the third time and passed, was incorrectly recorded as “Absent with leave”. Pursuant to House Rule 93, I am requesting that the Journal be corrected to show that I was in fact present in the chamber when the vote was taken. I did in fact vote, my vote was incorrectly recorded, and should have been recorded as “Aye”.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my hand to this affidavit on this 13th day of April, 2026.
