

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 20, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Brian Seitz.

Father, we thank You for the weekend that we spent at home, and we pray for those who went through the storms that hit certain parts of Missouri. Be with the families and businesses as they recover.

As we near the end of this legislative session, in a few short weeks, may Your Holy Spirit empower us with the wisdom to make decisions that affect so many.

We come boldly before Your throne of grace, by the shed blood of Christ Jesus, our Lord, and it is in His name we pray.

And the House said Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifty-third day was approved as printed by the following vote:

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS - INFORMAL

HS HCS HBs 3068 & 3049, relating to public safety, was taken up by Representative Myers.

On motion of Representative Myers, the title of HS HCS HBs 3068 & 3049 was agreed to.

Representative Myers offered House Amendment No. 15.

House Amendment No. 15

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 3068 & 3049, Page 101, Section 589.411, Line 32, by deleting the numbers "~~(5)~~ (4)" and inserting in lieu thereof the number "(5)"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Myers, House Amendment No. 15 was adopted.

Representative Taylor (48) offered House Amendment No. 16.

House Amendment No. 16

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 3068 & 3049, Page 127, Section 650.240, Line 6, by deleting said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

~~"provided for in section 650.250]~~ and who shall at the time of appointment meet the requirements as set forth by the most current Codes / Standards of the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspector (NBBI) for an Inservice Inspector."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Taylor (48), House Amendment No. 16 was adopted.

Representative Cook offered House Amendment No. 17.

House Amendment No. 17

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 3068 & 3049, Pages 20-21, Section 192.2515, Lines 1-31, by deleting all of said section and lines; and

Further amend said bill, Page 121, Section 630.1170, Line 43, by inserting after said section and line the following:

"632.305. 1. An application for detention for evaluation and treatment at a mental health facility may be executed by any adult person, who need not be an attorney or represented by an attorney, on a form provided by the court for such purpose, and shall allege under oath~~[-without a notarization requirement,]~~ that the applicant has reason to believe that the respondent is suffering from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or to others. The application shall specify the factual information on which such belief is based and should contain the names and addresses of all persons known to the applicant who have knowledge of such facts through personal observation.

2. The filing of a written application in court by any adult person, who need not be an attorney or represented by an attorney, shall authorize the applicant to bring the matter before the court on an ex parte basis to determine whether the respondent should be taken into custody and transported to a mental health facility. The application may be filed in the court having probate jurisdiction in any county where the respondent may be found. If the court finds that there is probable cause, either upon testimony under oath or upon a review of affidavits, declarations, or other supporting documentation, to believe that the respondent may be suffering from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, it shall direct a peace officer to take the respondent into custody and transport him or her to a mental health facility for detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours unless further detention and treatment is authorized pursuant to this chapter. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the court, in the exercise of its discretion, from giving the respondent an opportunity to be heard.

3. A peace officer may take a person into custody for detention for evaluation and treatment at a mental health facility for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours only when such peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder and that the likelihood of serious harm by such person to himself or herself or others is imminent unless such person is immediately taken into custody. Upon arrival at the mental health facility, the peace officer who conveyed such person or caused him or her to be conveyed shall either present the application for detention for evaluation and treatment upon which the court has issued a finding of probable cause and the respondent was taken into custody or complete an application for initial detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours which shall be based upon his or her own personal observations or investigations and shall contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.

4. If a person presents himself or herself or is presented by others to a mental health facility and a licensed physician, a registered professional nurse or a mental health professional designated by the head of the facility and approved by the department for such purpose has reasonable cause to believe that the person is mentally disordered and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others unless he or she is accepted for detention, the licensed physician, the mental health professional or the registered professional nurse designated by the facility and approved by the department may complete an application for detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours. The application shall be based on his or her own personal observations or investigation and shall contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.

5. (1) No notarization shall be required for an application, or for any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting an application, completed or executed by:

(a) A peace officer under subsection 3 of this section;

(b) A licensed physician, mental health professional, or registered professional nurse under subsection 4 of this section; or

(c) An employee acting on behalf of a hospital, as defined in section 197.020, under subsections 1 and 2 of this section.

(2) The application and any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting the application shall be subject to the provisions of section 492.060 allowing for declaration under penalty of perjury."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Cook, House Amendment No. 17 was adopted.

Representative Sassmann offered House Amendment No. 18.

House Amendment No. 18

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 3068 & 3049, Page 42, Section 304.822, Line 138, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"307.179. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Child booster seat", a seating system which meets the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards set forth in 49 C.F.R. 571.213, as amended, that is designed to elevate a child to properly sit in a federally approved safety belt system;

(2) "Child passenger restraint system", a seating system which meets the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards set forth in 49 C.F.R. 571.213, as amended, and which is either permanently affixed to a motor vehicle or is affixed to such vehicle by a safety belt or a universal attachment system;

(3) "Driver", a person who is in actual physical control of a motor vehicle.

2. Every driver transporting a child under the age of sixteen years shall be responsible, when transporting such child in a motor vehicle operated by that driver on the streets or highways of this state, for providing for the protection of such child as follows:

(1) Children under three years of age shall be secured in a rear-facing child passenger restraint system; except that such child may be secured in a forward-facing child passenger restraint system when the child reaches the highest rear-facing weight or height allowed by the manufacturer of the particular rear-facing system;

(2) Except as provided under subdivision (1) of this subsection, children [less than] under four years of age, regardless of weight, shall be secured in a child passenger restraint system appropriate for that child;

~~[(2)]~~ (3) Except as provided under subdivision (1) of this subsection, children weighing less than forty pounds [regardless of age,] and under eight years of age shall be secured in a child passenger restraint system appropriate for that child;

~~[(3)]~~ (4) Children at least four years of age but [less than] under eight years of age, who also weigh [at least] forty pounds [but less than eighty pounds, and who are also less than four feet, nine inches tall,] or more, shall be secured in a child passenger restraint system or booster seat appropriate for that child;

~~[(4)]~~ (5) Children at least eighty pounds [or children] and more than four feet, nine inches in height, or at least eight years of age, shall be secured by a vehicle safety belt [or booster seat appropriate for that child] in accordance with section 307.178;

~~[(5)]~~ (6) A child who otherwise would be required to be secured in a booster seat may be transported in the back seat of a motor vehicle while wearing only a lap belt if the back seat of the motor vehicle is not equipped with a combination lap and shoulder belt for booster seat installation;

~~(6) When transporting children in the immediate family when there are more children than there are seating positions in the enclosed area of a motor vehicle, the children who are not able to be restrained by a child safety restraint device appropriate for the child shall sit in the area behind the front seat of the motor vehicle unless the motor vehicle is designed only for a front seat area. The driver transporting children referred to in this subsection is not in violation of this section.~~

~~This subsection shall only apply to the use of a child passenger restraint system or vehicle safety belt for children less than sixteen years of age being transported in a motor vehicle].~~

3. Any driver who violates subdivision (1), (2), ~~or~~ (3), or (4) of subsection 2 of this section is guilty of an infraction and, upon conviction, may be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars and court costs. Any driver who violates subdivision ~~[(4)]~~ (5) of subsection 2 of this section shall be subject to the penalty in subsection 6 of section 307.178. If a driver receives a citation for violating subdivision (1), (2), ~~or~~ (3), or (4) of subsection 2 of this section, the charges shall be dismissed or withdrawn if the driver prior to or at his or her hearing provides evidence of acquisition of a child passenger restraint system or child booster seat which is satisfactory to the court or the party responsible for prosecuting the driver's citation.

4. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any public carrier for hire. The provisions of this section shall not apply to students four years of age or older who are passengers on a school bus designed for carrying eleven passengers or more and which is manufactured or equipped pursuant to Missouri Minimum Standards for School Buses as school buses are defined in section 301.010.

5. The highways and transportation commission shall initiate and develop a program of public information to develop understanding of, and ensure compliance with, the provisions of this section."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
