

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

So, my brothers and sisters, do stand firmly in the Lord. (Philippians 4:1)

O Loving God, who reveals Yourself in all that is good, true, and beautiful, help us to make our hearts receptive to You, and our minds responsive to the leadings of Your Spirit, as we face the tasks of this day. Now and always may we keep alive our faith in values that live forever and in virtues that never die. No matter what may be our future in life – joy or sorrow, victory or defeat – may we be strengthened by Your presence and sustained by Your power as we promote the growth of our districts and as we work for a better Missouri in which we can all live together with justice and peace.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by Callie Shoemaker.

The Journal of the fifty-sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

3. When the court has, after a hearing for any full order of protection, issued an order of protection, it may, in addition:

(1) Award custody of any minor child born to or adopted by the parties when the court has jurisdiction over such child and no prior order regarding custody is pending or has been made, and the best interests of the child require such order be issued;

5. In making an award of custody, the court shall consider all relevant factors including the presumption that the best interests of the child will be served by placing the child in the custody and care of the nonabusive parent, unless there is evidence that both parents have engaged in abusive behavior, in which case the court shall not consider this presumption but may appoint a guardian ad litem or a court-appointed special advocate to represent the children in accordance with chapter 452 and shall consider all other factors in accordance with chapter 452.

The court shall ensure that the contact information of the petitioner is not provided to the accountholder in proceedings held under this chapter.

(b) Upon issuance, a copy of the full order of protection shall be transmitted, either electronically or by certified mail, to the wireless service provider's registered agent listed with the secretary of state, or electronically to the email address provided by the wireless service provider. Such transmittal shall constitute adequate notice for the wireless service provider acting under this section and section 455.523.

(c) If the wireless service provider cannot operationally or technically effectuate the order due to certain circumstances, the wireless service provider shall notify the petitioner within three business days. Such circumstances shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

The protection order shall be effective immediately and shall be served on the defendant at the time of sentencing. An order issued pursuant to this section shall not expire and is valid for the defendant's lifetime unless:

2. A copy of any order of protection granted pursuant to this section shall be issued to the victim and to the local law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction where the victim resides. MULES shall forward the order information to NCIC, which will in turn make the order viewable within the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS). The sheriff shall enter information contained in the order, including, but not limited to, any orders regarding child custody or visitation and all specifics as to times and dates of custody or visitation that are provided in the order. A notice of termination of any order of protection or any change in child custody or visitation within that order shall be issued to the local law enforcement agency for entry into MULES or any other comparable law enforcement system. The information contained in an order of protection may be entered into MULES or any other comparable law enforcement system using a direct automated data transfer from the court automated system to the law enforcement system."; and

- (7) To be proceeded against according to the rules of evidence applicable to civil judicial proceedings; and
- (8) To have the hearing before a jury if requested by the respondent or his or her attorney.

3. The respondent shall be present at the hearing unless the respondent's physical condition is such that he or she cannot be present in the courtroom or if the court determines that the respondent's conduct in the courtroom is so disruptive that the proceedings cannot reasonably continue.

4. The burden of proof at the hearing shall be by clear and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioner.

5. If the matter is tried before a jury, the jury shall determine and shall be instructed only upon the issue of whether the respondent meets the criteria for assisted outpatient treatment in section 632.590. The remaining procedures for the jury trial shall be as in other civil matters.

6. The respondent shall not be required to file an answer or other responsive pleading.

7. At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court or jury finds, based upon clear and convincing evidence, that the respondent meets the criteria for assisted outpatient treatment in section 632.590, and the court finds that a mental health program appropriate to handle the respondent's condition has agreed to accept the respondent, the court shall issue an order requiring the respondent to participate in assisted outpatient treatment with the mental health program for a period not to exceed two years.

8. At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court or jury does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent meets the criteria for assisted outpatient treatment in section 632.590, the court shall dismiss the petition.

9. An order requiring the respondent to participate in assisted outpatient treatment based on satisfaction of the provisions of subparagraph a. of paragraph (b) of subdivision (2) of section 632.590 shall not be issued unless the court has considered, or the jury has been instructed to consider, at least the following factors:

- (1) The respondent's ability to access finances in order to obtain food or medicine;
- (2) The respondent's ability to obtain treatment for the respondent's medical condition;
- (3) The respondent's ability to access necessary resources in the community without assistance;
- (4) The degree to which there are risks to the respondent's safety;
- (5) The likelihood that the respondent will decompensate without immediate care or treatment;
- (6) The respondent's previous attempts to inflict physical injury on self or others;
- (7) The respondent's history of behavioral health treatment in the community;
- (8) The respondent's patterns of decompensation in the past;
- (9) The respondent's risk of being victimized or harmed by others; and
- (10) The respondent's access to the means to inflict harm on self or others.

10. Nothing in this section shall prevent the court or jury from considering any other factor not described in this section.

11. If requested by the respondent, the court shall appoint an available licensed physician or licensed psychologist to examine the respondent and testify at the respondent's request. If the respondent or the respondent's attorney so requests, the court shall not appoint a licensed physician or licensed psychologist who is an employee of any entity in which the respondent is hospitalized or receiving services or who is an employee of any entity that filed the petition. The appointment procedures in section 632.420 shall apply to any appointment under this subsection.

12. The physician-patient privilege recognized by section 491.060 and the psychologist-patient privilege recognized by section 337.055 shall be deemed waived in proceedings under sections 632.580 to 632.610. The fact that such privileges have been waived in accordance with this section shall not by itself waive the privileges in any other proceeding, civil or criminal. The waiver of the privileges shall extend only to that evidence that is directly material and relevant to the proceedings under sections 632.580 to 632.610.

13. Appeals from court orders under this section may be made as described in section 632.430.

14. Assisted outpatient treatment shall not be deemed outpatient detention for purposes of this chapter, and no provision of this chapter relating to the requirements for inpatient or outpatient detention proceedings shall apply to assisted outpatient treatment under sections 632.580 to 632.610 unless such provision has been specifically incorporated into sections 632.580 to 632.610 by reference or otherwise.

15. The provisions of section 632.440 shall apply to assisted outpatient treatment under sections 632.580 to 632.610.

632.595. 1. The court shall assign a case manager from a certified community behavioral health clinic to each respondent ordered to participate in assisted outpatient treatment.

2. The case manager and the respondent shall report to the court at least once every ninety days. The court may, at its discretion, request more frequent appearances. The case manager shall immediately report to the court a substantial failure of the respondent or the mental health program providing the assisted outpatient treatment to comply with the conditions of the assisted outpatient treatment.

632.600. 1. The court order for assisted outpatient treatment shall expire at the end of the period specified in the order unless a petition for an extension has been filed. If any person or entity authorized to file a petition under section 632.585 determines that a respondent requires further involuntary assisted outpatient treatment, the person or entity shall file a petition for continued assisted outpatient treatment before the expiration of the involuntary assisted outpatient treatment ordered by the court.

2. The procedure for obtaining an extension shall be the same as for obtaining the original order, except that the thirty-six-month time period provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision (2) of section 632.590 shall not be applicable in determining the appropriateness of an extension.

632.605. 1. During the period of an order for assisted outpatient treatment, if the mental health program or mental health professional who is providing the respondent's assisted outpatient treatment determines that the respondent is not complying with the court order, the mental health program or mental health professional shall notify the court immediately.

2. If it comes to the attention of the court that a respondent subject to an order of assisted outpatient treatment is not complying with the order, the court may require one or more of the following, without a hearing:

(1) That the respondent be taken for evaluation to a community mental health center providing comprehensive mental health services to individuals residing in the service area in which the respondent resides;

(2) That the respondent be hospitalized in a psychiatric hospital for a period of not more than ten days; and

(3) Upon recommendation by the community mental health center providing comprehensive mental health services to individuals residing in the service area in which the respondent resides, that the individual be hospitalized for a period of more than ten days, but not longer than the duration of the order for assisted outpatient treatment, or not longer than ninety days, whichever is less.

3. The court may direct peace officers to transport the respondent to a designated facility or a community mental health center, as applicable, and the court may specify conditions under which the respondent may return to assisted outpatient treatment before the order expires. Reimbursement for transportation costs shall be allowed as provided under section 632.312.

4. A respondent hospitalized without a hearing as provided in subsection 2 of this section may object to the hospitalization. Upon transfer of the respondent to the hospital, the hospital shall notify the respondent of his or her right to object under this section. Upon receipt of an objection to the hospitalization, the court shall schedule a hearing for a determination that the individual requires hospitalization. The respondent shall have all rights specified in section 632.593 at the hearing. The court shall order the respondent discharged from hospitalization unless the court or jury finds, based upon clear and convincing evidence, that the respondent requires hospitalization as a result of the respondent's failure to comply with the order for assisted outpatient treatment.

632.610. Beginning December 1, 2028, the office of state courts administrator shall submit an annual report to the general assembly summarizing:

- (1) The number of individuals subject to orders for assisted outpatient treatment;
- (2) Statistics on compliance and noncompliance rates with assisted outpatient treatment; and

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 1066 & 1088, Pages 26-27, Section 137.1050, Lines 128-168, by deleting all of said lines from the bill; and

Further amend said bill, Page 37, Section 137.1055, Line 336, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"139.053. 1. The governing body of any county~~[, excluding township counties,]~~ may by ordinance or order provide for the payment of all or any part of current real and personal property taxes which are owed, at the option of the taxpayer, on an annual, semiannual or quarterly basis at such times as determined by such governing body. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in any county operating under a township form of government, the township collector, or other county designee authorized to collect property taxes, shall have the same authority as provided to county collectors under this section to accept partial or installment payments of real and personal property taxes prior to delinquency.

2. (1) The ordinance shall provide the method by which the amount of property taxes owed for the current tax year in which the payments are to be made shall be estimated. The collector shall submit to the governing body the procedures by which taxes will be collected pursuant to the ordinance or order. The estimate shall be based on the previous tax year's liability. A taxpayer's payment schedule shall be based on the estimate divided by the number of pay periods in which payments are to be made. The taxpayer shall at the end of the tax year pay any amounts owed in excess of the estimate for such year. The county shall at the end of the tax year refund to the taxpayer any amounts paid in excess of the property tax owed for such year. No interest shall be paid by the county on excess amounts owed to the taxpayer. Any refund paid the taxpayer pursuant to this subsection shall be an amount paid by the county only once in a calendar year.

(2) Such township collector or county designee may establish reasonable procedures for the acceptance, processing, safeguarding, and accounting of such installment payments consistent with state law and local ordinances, and taxpayers within such jurisdictions shall have the same rights and opportunities to remit property taxes through installment payments as taxpayers in counties without a township form of government.

3. If a taxpayer fails to make an installment payment of a portion of the real or personal property taxes owed to the county, then such county may charge the taxpayer interest on the amount of property taxes still owed for that year.

4. Any governing body enacting the ordinance or order specified in this section shall first agree to provide the county collector with reasonable and necessary funds to implement the ordinance or order.

5. Subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to payment for real property taxes by financial institutions, as defined in section 381.410, who pay tax obligations which they service from escrow accounts, as defined in Title 24, Part 3500, Section 17, Code of Federal Regulation, as amended.

139.100. 1. (1) If any taxpayer shall fail or neglect to pay to the collector his taxes at the time required by law, then it shall be the duty of the collector, after the first day of January then next ensuing and in the absence of an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection, to collect and account for, as other taxes, an additional tax, as penalty, the amount provided for in section 140.100.

(2) For property tax liabilities incurred on or after January 1, 2020, and on or before December 31, 2020, the collector of any county with a charter form of government and with more than nine hundred fifty thousand inhabitants may enter into an agreement with any taxpayer for the payment of any amount of tax not paid at the time required by law, including a waiver or reduction of penalties and interest on such taxes, provided that any such agreement shall require such taxes to be paid to the collector or postmarked by no later than January 8, 2021.

(3) For any taxpayer that has paid penalties and interest on property tax liabilities not paid at the time required by law, and such penalties and interest are subsequently reduced or waived through an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection, that portion of penalties and interest paid and subsequently reduced or waived may be credited to the taxpayer on such taxpayer's tax liability for the subsequent year. The county may reduce on a pro rata basis any distributions to taxing jurisdictions by the amount of any penalties and interest from late payments from the 2020 tax year that were collected and distributed, but were then subsequently reduced or waived pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection.

2. Collectors shall, on the day of their annual settlement with the county governing body, file with governing body a statement, under oath, of the amount so received, and from whom received, and settle with the governing body therefor; but, interest shall not be chargeable against persons who are absent from their homes, and engaged in the military service of this state or of the United States. The provisions of this section shall apply to the City of St. Louis, so far as the same relates to the addition of such interest, which, in such city, shall be collected and accounted for by the collector as other taxes, for which he shall receive no compensation.

3. Whenever any collector of the revenue in the state fails or refuses to collect the penalty provided for in this section on state and county taxes, it shall be the duty of the director of revenue and county clerk to charge such collectors with the amount of interest due thereon, as shown by the returns of the county clerk, and such collector shall be liable to the penalties as provided for in section 139.270.

4. (1) For purposes of this section and other provisions of law relating to the timely payment of taxes due on any real or personal property, payments for taxes due on any real or personal property which are delivered by United States mail to the collector, the collector's office, or other officer or office designated by the county or city to receive such payments, of the appropriate county or city, shall be deemed paid as of the postmark date stamped on the envelope or other cover in which such payment is mailed. In the event any payment of taxes due is sent by registered or certified mail, the date of registration or certification shall be deemed the postmark date. No additional tax or penalty shall be imposed under this section on any taxpayer whose payment is delivered by United States mail, if the postmark date stamped on the envelope or other cover containing such payment falls within the prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date, including any extension granted, for making the payment or if the postmaster for the jurisdiction where the payment was mailed verifies in writing that the payment was deposited in the United States mail within the prescribed period or on or before the prescribed date, including any extension granted, for making the payment, and was delayed in delivery because of an error by the United States postal service and not because of an error by the taxpayer. In the absence of a postmark, or if the postmark is illegible or otherwise inconclusive, the collector may use the collector's judgment regarding the timeliness of the payment contained therein and shall document such decision.

(2)(a) For all property tax liabilities incurred on or after January 1, 2026, any payment of real or personal property taxes transmitted through the United States Postal Service and postmarked no later than January fifth of the year immediately following the applicable tax year shall be deemed timely paid and shall not be subject to penalty or interest, provided that, regardless of postmark date, any check, cashier's check, or money order dated later than December thirty-first of the applicable tax year shall be considered delinquent, and further provided that any payment made by means other than United States Postal Service mail, including but not limited to in-person, electronic, internet, interactive voice response, or electronic check payments shall be considered delinquent if received after December thirty-first of the applicable tax year.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the assessor, township assessor, or other county or city not within a county designee responsible for the administration of assessment lists, personal property declarations, homestead verification forms, or other assessment-related filings may allow a grace period not to exceed ten days following the statutory deadline for submission of such forms when such forms are transmitted through the United States Postal Service and postmarked on or before the applicable due date but received after such due date due to postal delay. Any such form received within the authorized grace period shall be deemed timely filed and shall not result in penalty, estimated assessment, or disqualification from any property tax credit or relief program solely due to delayed receipt. The assessor or county or city not within a county designee may establish reasonable procedures to verify postmark dates and ensure uniform and consistent application of such grace period in accordance with state law.

5. For all property tax liabilities incurred on or after January 1, 2026, and notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in the event a county or city not within a county experiences technical, administrative, or operational difficulties that materially delay the preparation, printing, or mailing of real or personal property tax statements, the county or city not within a county governing body may extend the deadline for timely payment of such taxes for a period not to exceed thirty days beyond the otherwise applicable delinquency date. During such extension period, payments received shall be deemed timely and shall not be subject to penalty or interest. The governing body shall provide reasonable public notice of such extension, and such extension shall apply uniformly to all affected taxpayers within the jurisdiction."; and

6. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE THAT THE VALUE OF YOUR PROPERTY HAS INCREASED, YOU MUST CHALLENGE THE VALUE ON OR BEFORE _____ (INSERT DATE BY WHICH APPEAL MUST BE FILED) BY CONTACTING YOUR COUNTY ASSESSOR.

3. Effective January first of the year following receipt of software necessary for the implementation of the requirements provided under this subsection and subsection 4 of this section from the state tax commission, if an assessor increases the valuation of any real property, the assessor, on or before June fifteenth, shall notify the record owner of the increase and, in a year of general reassessment, the county shall notify the record owner of the projected tax liability likely to result from such an increase ~~either~~ in person ~~or~~, by first-class mail directed to the last known address, or by electronic means under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, and, if the address of the owner is unknown, notice shall be given by publication in two newspapers published in the county. - (8) The total projected property tax liability of the taxpayer.

5. Assessors may provide assessment sheets, valuation notices, and other official communications electronically upon obtaining consent from the property owner. No property owner shall be required to receive electronic notices, and paper notice shall be provided upon request.

137.490. 1. The assessor, or his deputies under his direction, shall assess all the taxable real property within the city and all tangible personal property taxable by the city under the laws of this state in the manner provided in sections 137.485 to 137.550 and as otherwise provided by law, and for that purpose the assessor may divide and assign the work or any of it among them. They shall commence their assessment on the first day of January in each year and complete the assessment, and the deputies make their final reports thereof to the assessor, on or before the first day of July next following. The assessor shall see that the assessment is made uniform and equal throughout the city. If the assessor proposes to increase any assessment of real property, he or she shall give notice of the fact to the person owning the property affected, his or her agent or representative, by personal notice, ~~or~~ by first-class mail directed to the last known address, or by electronic means, including email or secure electronic delivery, provided the property owner has consented to electronic delivery or has supplied an email address to the assessor's office. Notice of the projected tax liability from the city shall accompany the notice of increased valuation from the assessor.

3. The notice of projected tax liability, required under subsection 2 of this section, from the city shall include:

- (1) The record owner's name, address, and the parcel number of the property;
- (2) A list of all political subdivisions levying a tax upon the property of the record owner;

Further amend said bill, Page 37, Section 137.1055, Line 336, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"139.031. 1. (1) Any taxpayer may protest all or any part of any current taxes assessed against the taxpayer, except taxes collected by the director of revenue of Missouri. Any such taxpayer desiring to pay any current taxes under protest or while paying taxes based upon a disputed assessment shall, at the time of paying such taxes, make full payment of the current tax bill before the delinquency date and file with the collector a written statement setting forth the grounds on which the protest is based. The statement shall include the true value in money claimed by the taxpayer if disputed. An appeal before the state tax commission shall not be dismissed on the grounds that a taxpayer failed to file a written statement when paying taxes based upon a disputed assessment.

(2) (a) The governing body of any county may by ordinance or order provide for partial payments on residential real property taxes assessed and in dispute, when a taxpayer has appealed an assessment on their primary residence that has not been resolved by the property tax payment deadline, at the option of the taxpayer.

(b) The county may enter into an agreement with a taxpayer that requires the taxpayer to make a minimum payment that is greater than or equal to the tax liability assessed on the residential real property in the previous year and to pay the remainder due, if any, after all appeals and final judgment has been entered, with interest on the remaining disputed amount deferred at a rate not to exceed the lesser of five percent or the annual percentage increase in inflation based on the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers in the Midwest Region, as recorded by the United State Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, or its successor index, and in addition, shall pay to the county the ten dollar fee established under subsection 3 of section 140.100. Upon minimum payment, per the agreement, the taxpayer's account shall be considered in compliance until the appeal is resolved and the taxpayer has been given notice of any final payment amount and thirty days to make full payment.

(c) If a taxpayer fails to make the initial approved partial payment of the residential real property taxes owed to the county on or before the due date as determined by the agreement, such county shall charge the taxpayer interest and penalties on the amount of property taxes still owed for that year, which shall include the late partial payment amount and the deferred payment amount. No county shall charge a taxpayer interest or penalties on any amount of property taxes the taxpayer has already paid. Delinquent residential real property taxes under this subdivision shall bear interest at the rate provided by section 140.100.

2. Upon receiving payment of current taxes under protest under subsection 1 of this section or upon receiving from the state tax commission or the circuit court notice of an appeal from the state tax commission or the circuit court under section 138.430, along with full payment of the current tax bill before the delinquency date, the collector shall disburse to the proper official all portions of taxes not protested or not disputed by the taxpayer and shall impound in a separate fund all portions of such taxes which are protested or in dispute. Every taxpayer protesting the payment of current taxes under subsection 1 of this section shall, within ninety days after filing his protest, commence an action against the collector by filing a petition for the recovery of the amount protested in the circuit court of the county in which the collector maintains his office. If any taxpayer so protesting his taxes under subsection 1 of this section shall fail to commence an action in the circuit court for the recovery of the taxes protested within the time prescribed in this subsection, such protest shall become null and void and of no effect, and the collector shall then disburse to the proper official the taxes impounded, and any interest earned thereon, as provided above in this subsection.

3. No action against the collector shall be commenced by any taxpayer who has, effective for the current tax year, filed with the state tax commission or the circuit court a timely and proper appeal of the assessment of the taxpayer's property. The portion of taxes in dispute from an appeal of an assessment shall be impounded in a separate fund and the commission in its decision and order issued under chapter 138 or the circuit court in its judgment may order all or any part of such taxes refunded to the taxpayer, or may authorize the collector to release and disburse all or any part of such taxes.

4. Trial of the action for recovery of taxes protested under subsection 1 of this section in the circuit court shall be in the manner prescribed for nonjury civil proceedings, and, after determination of the issues, the court shall make such orders as may be just and equitable to refund to the taxpayer all or any part of the current taxes paid under protest, together with any interest earned thereon, or to authorize the collector to release and disburse all or any part of the impounded taxes, and any interest earned thereon, to the appropriate officials of the taxing authorities. Either party to the proceedings may appeal the determination of the circuit court.

5. All the county collectors of taxes, and the collector of taxes in any city not within a county, shall, upon written application of a taxpayer, refund or credit against the taxpayer's tax liability in the following ~~taxable~~ tax year and subsequent consecutive ~~taxable~~ tax years until the taxpayer has received credit in full for any real or personal property tax mistakenly or erroneously levied against the taxpayer and collected in whole or in part by the collector. Such application shall be filed within three years after the tax is mistakenly or erroneously paid. The governing body, or other appropriate body or official of the county or city not within a county, shall make available to the collector funds necessary to make refunds under this subsection by issuing warrants upon the fund to which the mistaken or erroneous payment has been credited, or otherwise.

6. No taxpayer shall receive any interest on any money paid in by the taxpayer erroneously.

7. All protested taxes impounded under protest under subsection 1 of this section and all disputed taxes impounded under notice as required by section 138.430 shall be invested by the collector in the same manner as assets specified in section 30.260 for investment of state moneys. A taxpayer who is entitled to a refund of protested or disputed taxes shall also receive the interest earned on the investment thereof. If the collector is ordered to release and disburse all or part of the taxes paid under protest or dispute to the proper official, such taxes shall be disbursed along with the proportional amount of interest earned on the investment of the taxes due the particular taxing authority.

8. Any taxing authority may request to be notified by the county collector of current taxes paid under protest. Such request shall be in writing and submitted on or before February first next following the delinquent date of current taxes paid under protest or disputed, and the county collector shall provide such information on or before March first of the same year to the requesting taxing authority of the taxes paid under protest and disputed taxes which would be received by such taxing authority if the funds were not the subject of a protest or dispute. Any taxing authority may apply to the circuit court of the county or city not within a county in which a collector has impounded protested or disputed taxes under this section and, upon a satisfactory showing that such taxing authority would receive such impounded tax funds if they were not the subject of a protest or dispute and that such taxing authority has the financial ability and legal capacity to repay such impounded tax funds in the event a decision ordering a refund to the taxpayer is subsequently made, the circuit court shall order, pendente lite, the disbursal of all or any part of such impounded tax funds to such taxing authority. The circuit court issuing an order under this subsection shall retain jurisdiction of such matter for further proceedings, if any, to compel restitution of such tax funds to the taxpayer. In the event that any protested or disputed tax funds refunded to a taxpayer were disbursed to a taxing authority under this subsection instead of being held and invested by the collector under subsection 7 of this section, the taxpayer shall be entitled to interest on all refunded tax funds at the annual rate calculated by the state treasurer and applied by the director of revenue under section 32.068. This measure of interest shall only apply to protested or disputed tax funds actually distributed to a taxing authority pursuant to this subsection. In the event of a refund of protested or disputed tax funds which remain impounded by the collector, the taxpayer shall instead be entitled to the interest actually earned on those refunded impounded tax funds under subsection 7 of this section.

Any sovereign or official immunity otherwise applicable to the taxing authorities is hereby waived for all purposes related to this subsection, and the taxpayer is expressly authorized to seek an order enforcing this provision from the circuit court that originally ordered the distribution of the protested or disputed funds, or directly from the state tax commission, if the tax appeal that resulted in the refund was heard and determined by the state tax commission.

9. No appeal filed from the circuit court's or state tax commission's determination pertaining to the amount of refund shall stay any order of refund, but the decision filed by any court of last review modifying that determination shall be binding on the parties, and the decision rendered shall be complied with by the party affected by any modification within ninety days of the date of such decision. No taxpayer shall receive any interest on any additional award of refund, and the collector shall not receive any interest on any ordered return of refund in whole or in part."; and
