

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 103rd General Assembly

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2026

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Patterson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

Thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord; that it may be well with thee. (Deuteronomy 6:18)

Ancient and Eternal God, with open hearts we pause at the start of this beautiful day's duties to lift our spirits to You, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden. Cleanse our hearts by the inspiration of Your Holy Spirit, that we may love You more perfectly, serve our constituents more fully, and lead our families more diligently during this final week.

Let us not add to the problems we face by our own fear and our selfish endeavors, but rather help us to become part of the solution by our courage and our unselfish efforts to lead our state to wider areas of understanding, charity, and humility.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by Clay Walker.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Isabelle LaFaver and Barrett Mannell.

The Journal of the sixty-seventh day was approved as printed by the following vote:

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section to the contrary, a person who registers as a lobbyist shall not be prohibited from maintaining a candidate committee designated to seek election to a county, municipal, or school board office, provided such person is not registered to lobby the county, municipality, or school district for which that person's candidate committee is designated to seek office. (1) In regard to any printed matter paid for by a candidate from the candidate's personal funds, it shall be sufficient identification to print the first and last name by which the candidate is known.

(2) In regard to any printed matter paid for by a committee, it shall be sufficient identification to print the name of the committee as required to be registered by subsection 5 of section 130.021 and the name and title of the committee treasurer who was serving when the printed matter was paid for.

(3) In regard to any printed matter paid for by a corporation or other business entity, labor organization, or any other organization not defined to be a committee by subdivision (7) of section 130.011 and not organized especially for influencing one or more elections, it shall be sufficient identification to print the name of the entity, the name of the principal officer of the entity, by whatever title known, and the mailing address of the entity, or if the entity has no mailing address, the mailing address of the principal officer.

(4) In regard to any printed matter paid for by an individual or individuals, it shall be sufficient identification to print the name of the individual or individuals and the respective mailing address or addresses, except that if more than five individuals join in paying for printed matter it shall be sufficient identification to print the words "For a list of other sponsors contact:" followed by the name and address of one such individual responsible for causing the matter to be printed, and the individual identified shall maintain a record of the names and amounts paid by other individuals and shall make such record available for review upon the request of any person. No person shall accept for publication or printing nor shall such work be completed until the printed matter is properly identified as required by this subsection.

9. Any broadcast station transmitting any matter relative to any candidate for public office or ballot measure as defined by this chapter shall identify the sponsor of such matter as required by federal law.

10. The provisions of subsection 8 or 9 of this section shall not apply to candidates for elective federal office, provided that persons causing matter to be printed or broadcast concerning such candidacies shall comply with the requirements of federal law for identification of the sponsor or sponsors.

11. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any person required to be identified as paying for printed matter pursuant to subsection 8 of this section or paying for broadcast matter pursuant to subsection 9 of this section to refuse to provide the information required or to purposely provide false, misleading, or incomplete information.

12. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any committee to offer chances to win prizes or money to persons to encourage such persons to endorse, send election material by mail, deliver election material in person or contact persons at their homes; except that, the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit hiring and paying a campaign staff.

13. All solicitations, except those from a connected organization of a continuing committee, shall state, in a clear and conspicuous manner, the continuing committee, campaign committee, political party committee, exploratory committee, or candidate committee that will benefit from any funds received as a result of the solicitation. 14. (1) A committee soliciting a recurring contribution for an expenditure or printed or broadcast matter may accept the recurring contribution only if the contributor gives affirmative consent for the recurring contribution. (2) If a contributor affirmatively consents to making a recurring contribution, the committee soliciting the recurring contribution shall:

(a) Provide a receipt to the contributor for each contribution that clearly and conspicuously discloses:

a. The frequency of the recurring contributions;

b. The duration of the recurring contributions; and

(4) The Missouri ethics commission may impose a civil penalty on committees violating this subsection of up to one hundred times the amount of the contribution received in violation of this subsection.

(5) Recurring contributions made under this subsection to support or oppose a candidate or ballot measure shall automatically end after the election at which the candidate or measure appeared on the ballot, except that recurring contributions made to any candidate who wins a primary election may continue until the general election.

130.039. A candidate for a state office shall not make contributions to his or her own candidate committee in excess of the contribution limitation applicable to the elective office sought pursuant to the Missouri Constitution or statute, whichever is applicable. This section shall not apply to any candidate for a judicial office.

130.170. For purposes of sections 130.170 to 130.188, the following terms mean:

(1) "Committee", the same meaning as otherwise provided in section 130.011, except it shall not include candidate committees or continuing committees, provided that if a continuing committee makes an expenditure that is subject to subsection 3 of section 130.176 or makes a contribution to a committee that has made an expenditure that is subject to subsection 3 of section 130.176, that continuing committee shall be considered a committee for purposes of sections 130.170 to 130.188;

(6) "Prohibited sources", contributions from or expenditures by a foreign national made with the intent to use such funds to influence an election on a ballot measure;

(7) "Preliminary activity", includes, but is not limited to, conducting a poll, drafting ballot measure language, conducting a focus group, making telephone calls, and travel;

(8) "Tax-exempt organization", an organization that is described in Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and is exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of such code. A political organization organized pursuant to Section 527 of such code shall not be considered a tax-exempt organization.

130.176. 1. Upon a committee's receipt of a contribution of more than two thousand dollars, the treasurer ~~shall obtain~~ may request from the donor an affirmation that the donor is not a foreign national and has not knowingly or willfully accepted funds, directly or indirectly, aggregating in excess of ten thousand dollars from one or more prohibited sources within the two-year period immediately preceding the date the contribution is made, in the case of an individual, or within the four-year period immediately preceding the date the contribution is made, in case of any other entity. Receipt of an affirmation by a committee pursuant to this subsection shall create a rebuttable presumption of compliance with this subsection on the part of the committee. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the attorney general from pursuing any action pursuant to section 130.188 if the attorney general has found a willful violation of this subsection.

2. Each disclosure report filed pursuant to section 130.041 shall require the treasurer of a committee to affirm that the donor associated with each contribution is not a foreign national and has not knowingly or willfully received, solicited, or accepted, whether directly or indirectly, contributions from one or more prohibited sources aggregating in excess of ten thousand dollars within the four-year period immediately preceding the date of the contribution.

3. Receipt of an affirmation from a donor that it is not a foreign national shall create a rebuttable presumption that the entity has not knowingly or willingly accepted funds, directly or indirectly, aggregating in excess of ten thousand dollars from one or more prohibited sources. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the attorney general from pursuing any action pursuant to section 130.188 if the attorney general has found a willful violation of this subsection.

5. A committee shall not accept an in-kind contribution from any foreign national or from any individual or entity that has knowingly or willfully accepted funds, directly or indirectly, aggregating in excess of ten thousand dollars from one or more foreign nationals within the four-year period immediately preceding the date the in-kind contribution is made. A foreign national shall not make an in-kind expenditure for the purpose of supporting or opposing any ballot measure.
