

HB 1692 -- MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTIONS

SPONSOR: Cupps

Currently, most motor vehicles that have at least 150,000 miles or are at least 10 years old must receive a safety inspection every two years.

Beginning January 1, 2027, this bill removes the safety inspection requirement for noncommercial motor vehicles, except rebuilt salvage vehicles.