

HB 1724 -- SALVAGE VEHICLES

SPONSOR: Costlow

Currently, if an insurance company retains a salvage vehicle and subsequently transfers the vehicle to a buyer as prior salvage, the buyer must, prior to applying for a certificate of ownership, receive an inspection through the Highway Patrol, including a verification of vehicle identification numbers and a determination of the classification of the vehicle.

This bill removes that inspection requirement.