

HB 1813 -- LICENSURE RECIPROCITY

SPONSOR: Nolte

This bill amends current professional license reciprocity law to state that the Missouri board for architects, professional engineers, professional land surveyors and professional landscape architects (Board) can deny a license or decline to grant a temporary or probationary license to an applicant if the Board determines the applicant's qualifications are not substantially equivalent to those established by the Board.