

HB 2443 -- DEGREES OFFERED BY INSTITUTIONS OF POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

SPONSOR: Loy

Currently, the University of Missouri is the State's only public research university and the only state university that can offer specific degrees, with limited exceptions. This bill removes all degree program restrictions for public institutions of higher education and authorizes each institutions governing board to confer degrees for any program of instruction offerered at the institution.