

HB 3394 -- DAMAGES FOR THROWING DOWN FENCES

SPONSOR: Sassmann

Currently, if a person voluntarily opens a door, bar, gate, or fence and leaves it open, other than those that lead into his or her own enclosure, he or she must pay the injured party $5 and double the amount of damages sustained. This bill would increase that penalty to $100 and repeals certain exemptions from the requirements.