

HB 3403 -- ELECTION DAY

SPONSOR: Woods

This bill adds the general election day that occurs in November of even numbered years to the list of public holidays in Missouri.

Additionally, the Coordinating Board of Higher Education must require that all colleges and universities be closed on the general election day, unless such college or university serves as a polling place.

This bill is similar to HB 1445 (2024).