

HJR 117 -- STATE REGULATION OF CONTRACTS

SPONSOR: Miller

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment will prohibit the State from passing laws that interfere with private parties' ability to set prices or compensation in any market or industry.

The amendment includes exceptions for industries already regulated under existing State law and for community use of shared natural resources.

The amendment will not affect current contracts, agreements, or pending legal actions.