

HJR 118 -- THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SPONSOR: Amato

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment would prohibit the General Assembly from modifying or repealing any statutory measure that was approved through initiative petition, unless more than five years have passed since passage of the measure or the changes are approved by a 2/3 vote of both chambers.