

HJR 136 -- CONTINUING COMMITTEES

SPONSOR: Jobe

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment would prohibit the name or image of any candidate for public office from appearing on any advertisement or printed material paid for by a continuing committee, including a political action committee, and it would prohibit a continuing committee from expressing support for or opposition to candidates for public office in any advertisement or printed material. A continuing committee that violates this must issue a retraction that is as similar as practicable to the violating material in cost, size, scope, medium, time, and place.
