

HJR 193 -- CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

SPONSOR: Jamison

Upon voter approval, this constitutional amendment would provide that equality of rights under the law will not be denied by this State or any instrumentality thereof on account of physical or mental disability, and that the General Assembly would have the power to enforce the provisions of this amendment via appropriate legislation.